

September 30th – National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

The UA Canadian office supports the Indigenous Communities in Canada and recognizes the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation on September 30th

Please, use this day for reflection, education, or participation in a community event to acknowledge the history of residential schools, honor the survivors, their families, and their communities. Take this day to learn something new about Indigenous culture, and how the residential school system has impacted communities, heritage, and way of life.

Take time learn about what you can do to help work towards reconciliation for Indigenous peoples in Canada. To find out more, please visit the National Truth and Reconciliation Website at: <https://nctr.ca>

Fraternally,

Terence N. Snooks
UA Director of Canadian Affairs
