Whereas the Employer and the Unions agree that, due to the particular nature of the work covered by this Agreement, there shall be no lock-outs or strikes during the life of the Agreement, and provisions must be made to achieve this end.

Whereas, it is recognized that all Employees covered by this Agreement shall have the protection of all existing Federal, Provincial and Local laws applicable to Employees in general, any provisions in this Agreement which are in contravention of any Federal, Provincial or Municipal regulation or laws affecting all or part of the limits covered by this Agreement shall be suspended in operation within the limits to which such law or regulation is in effect. The Unions agree that a total core workforce of two (2) local residents can be attained for the Poplar River Power Station. Best efforts will be given to provide more local residents.

- 2:06 The Employer agrees to deduct and remit Union dues and other deductions in accordance with the following:

ARTICLE 5:00 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

5:01 An Employee may take up any matter direct with the Employer at any time and the Employer retains the right to explain its views on any matter to its Employees directly, through a meeting, by notice or other lawful means.

5:02 It is the mutual desire of the Parties hereto that complaints of Employees shall be addressed as quickly as possible and it is agreed that an Employee has no grievance until they have first given their Foreperson or Supervisor an opportunity to address their complaint. All time limits hereinafter stated shall be mandatory. Should time limits expire the grievance shall be deemed abandoned. Time limits may be extended by mutual consent of the designated Employer representative and the Union.

5:03 Grievance Procedure

Step 1: Any Employee who claims to have a grievance shall, along with the Job steward if one has been selected on the job, refer the matter within three (3) working days of the occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance to their immediate Foreperson or Supervisor, who shall give a reply with respect thereto within twenty-four (24) hours.

Step 2: Should the reply of the Foreperson or Supervisor be not acceptable, the claim shall be reduced to writing and submitted by the Union within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the reply in Step 1 to the Foreperson in charge of the project and to the designated office of the Employer. The Employer shall either request a further discussion with the Union Representative or render a decision in writing to the Union within ten (10) working days following receipt of the claim. Any dispute or question between the Parties hereto arising out of the terms of this Agreement or respecting application or interpretation of same shall be considered a grievance and shall be dealt with in the manner herein provided.

5:04 If any Employee claims they have been unjustly discharged by the Employer, their complaint shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of claim is given by the Steward to the Foreperson in charge of the project within twenty-four(24) hours of notice of dismissal and a written statement of claim is mailed by the Union Representative to the designated office of the Employer within ten (10) working days of the notice of dismissal.

Unless the complaint is so reported within the specified time, their employment shall be deemed to have terminated when they were dismissed and such dismissal shall not constitute a grievance at a later date.

5:05 Should the Employer have a complaint with respect to the conduct of the Union, its officers, committee persons or stewards, the Employer may process a grievance by submitting same in writing to a Union Representative. On receipt of the Employer's grievance, the Union shall consider same and shall render a decision in writing to the Employer within ten (10) working days following receipt of the claim.

Step 3: If the Employers decision (Step 2) or the Business Manager's decision in 5:05 is unacceptable, the grievance shall then be discussed within a further five (5) working days of receipt of either reply at a meeting of the International Vice-President or their designated representative and a representative of the Employer.

If the matter is not resolved within these five (5) working days the matter shall be referred to Step 4.

Step 4: Before proceeding to Arbitration, the parties shall advise an authorized representative of the appropriate Representative Employers Organization "REO" of the details. At the request of either party, the grievance may be discussed between an International Officer of the Union, an authorized representative of the Saskatchewan Provincial Building & Construction Trades Council, an authorized Employer Representative and an authorized representative of the appropriate REO in order to obtain an interpretation of the Collective Agreement in connection with the grievance. If the matter is still not resolved within five (5) working days of referral to the appropriate REO, then at the request of either party the grievance may be referred to arbitration.

5:06 Optional Grievance Mediation

The parties may agree to refer one or more grievances to a grievance mediator for the purpose of resolving the grievances in an expeditious and informal manner.

- (1) The parties shall not refer a grievance to a grievance mediator unless they have agreed on the nature of any issues in dispute.
- (2) On a joint request by the parties, the Minister of Labour shall appoint a grievance mediator.
- (3) A grievance mediator appointed by the Minister shall begin proceedings within ten (10) days after being appointed or on any day that the parties jointly request.
- (4) Where the parties jointly request the appointment of a grievance mediator pursuant to this section, any provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement that impose a limitation of time with respect to the reference of a grievance to arbitration are deemed to be inoperative.
- (5) The grievance mediator shall endeavour to assist the parties to settle the grievance by mediation.
- (6) If the parties are unable to settle the grievance by mediation, the grievance mediator shall endeavour to assist the parties to agree on the material facts in dispute, and then the parties may determine the grievance in accordance with the arbitration provisions commencing with the next step as outlined in 5:07.

5:07 Arbitration

The decision of the majority of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding upon the Employer and the Union but the Board of Arbitration shall not have jurisdiction to set provisions of a new agreement, nor to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor by its decisions, to change wholly or in part any provision of this Agreement.

5:08 No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through all the steps of the grievance procedure.

- 5:09 When either party requests that a question be submitted to a Board of Arbitration, they shall make such request in writing addressed to the other Party within five (5) working days after the question has been dealt with in the final step of "Grievance Procedure", and at the same time shall nominate an arbitrator. The other Party shall nominate an arbitrator within five (5) working days after receipt of the written notice. The two arbitrators so nominated shall meet, and if within a further five (5) working days they fail to settle the grievance, they shall attempt to select by agreement a Chairperson of the Arbitration Board, who shall be entitled to vote on all questions, but shall not be a member of the Employer or Union. If they are unable to agree upon a Chairperson within a further five (5) working days, then the Chairperson shall be a person appointed by the Minister of Labour for the Province of Saskatchewan.
- 5:10 The Employer and the Union shall bear the expense of their respective appointees, and shall share equally the expense of the Chairperson and other expenses of the Arbitration Board.
- 5:11 The Provisions of the Saskatchewan Arbitration Act shall not apply to a Board of Arbitration established under this Section.

ARTICLE 6:00 JURISDICTIONAL DISPUTES

- 6:01 Project maintenance conditions do not always justify adherence to craft lines which, in itself, does not establish precedent or change the appropriate jurisdiction of the craft involved. The Parties agree that composite crews are essential to maintenance by contracts to ensure flexibility and continuity in maintenance. Composite crews may be formed where conditions warrant, but shall not be construed under regular operating conditions as the Employer's prerogative to assign workers out of their usual skill classification.
- 6:02 The Employer may, if it desires, maintain a variety of skills within its group of Employees to be prepared to have skills and/or supervision for any type of work that may arise.
- 6:03 It is understood that all Employees will work together harmoniously as a group and as directed by the Employer.
- 6:04 In the event that any jurisdictional disputes shall arise between two or more Unions represented by this Agreement, an immediate assignment of the work in question shall be made by the designated Employer representative based upon decisions and agreement of record. The work is then to continue and, if any of the Unions involved are not satisfied with the assignment, the matter shall be referred to the International Office of the Unions involved for a project decision.
- 6:05 The Employer and the Unions agree that such assignment of work involved in a jurisdictional dispute is imperative to the satisfactory operation of this Agreement and the continued operation of the Owner's plant.

ARTICLE 7:00 UNION REPRESENTATIVES

- 7:01 The Employer shall grant to accredited Representatives of the Local Unions, access to all jobs insofar as the Employer has the authority to allow such access, provided the Union Representative secures permission from the Employer's senior Representative and does not cause Employees to neglect their work.

The Steward(s) shall not be discriminated against and shall receive their fair share of overtime work for which they are qualified.

A printed confirmation of earnings and deductions shall be included with cheque or for electronic deposits delivered to the jobsite or mailed to the Employee's address on record or sent electronically, as agreed between the Employer and Employee, to the Employee's email address on record.
- 9:05 In all cases of termination a Termination Sign-off form, in the form of Appendix A, which includes the hours worked by the Employee in the final pay period, shall be completed and provided to the Employee to finalize their employment. The form shall be signed by both the Employee and the Employer's supervisory authority.

For a ten hour shift there shall be two (2) fifteen (15) minute rest breaks.

On a ten hour the employer may also utilise the option of having two (2) thirty (30) minute paid rest breaks on a ten (10) hour shift. If the two (2) thirty (30) minute paid rest breaks are being used the employees are not entitled to the lunch break in 10:02.
